In addition to feedback from training courses the following are examples of how Dominic Moss of Projectability is viewed amongst his peers.

- Dominic has assisted myself and countless others in the Microsoft newsgroups for Project Server. His understanding and technical knowledge of project server never ceases to amaze me. I can always count on him and others like him to guide me in the right direction!

- Dominic is a thought leader in the field of Project Management, and would be an asset to any organization where project failure is not an option.

- Dominic has a lifelong track record in project management, esp in the effective use of tools to support project management and managers.
